

MODERN ART OXFORD

Modern Art Oxford offers inspirational and educational creative experiences for you and your team. These bold and progressive sessions explore the multiple benefits of creativity, encouraging a richer understanding of visual culture and expanding the ways that people think about art and its role in society.

Inspired by the material and themes within our exhibitions, our team of staff share their passionate belief in the visual arts and the positive social impact it can have on society. Through artistic experimentation and innovation, you will be engaged by inclusive learning methods.

Our away day packages are made to help your team:

- appreciate different perspectives in our rapidly changing world, which encourage them to adapt and grow;
- discover diverse, unconventional viewpoints from around the world;
- develop artistic expression and understanding;
- by offering new experiences and encouraging new skills, we are sure we can help your team feel more confident.

All courses are half-day and are available for group sizes of 10-50 for £25pp+VAT

MODERN ART OXFORD

LOOKING AT ART - SEEING THE WORLD

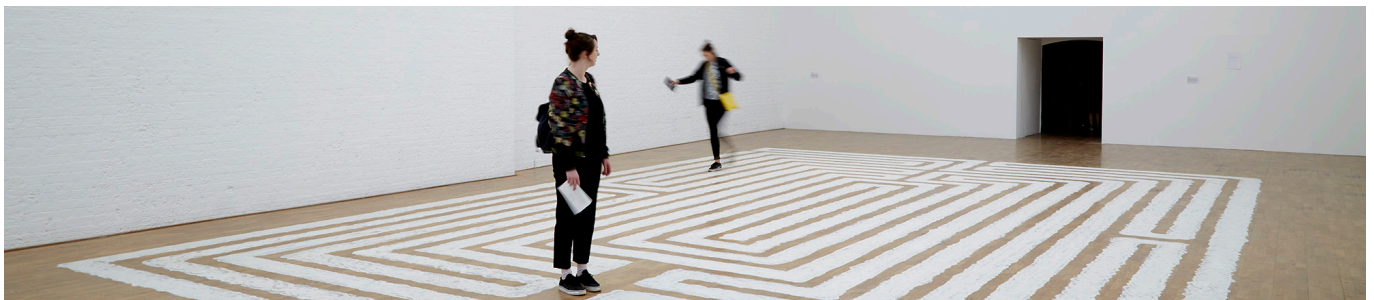

Unique among professional development courses, this gives your delegates an instant insight into the boundless cultural power of art, and how anyone can employ the same techniques and thought processes to excel in business.

Participants learn to analyse, expand, and reconsider the limits of their professional responsibilities.

ALTER YOUR PERCEPTIONS

Combining the worlds of Art and Psychology, this exciting tour teaches the best ways to enhance observation and ensure effective articulation. Including live close-up magic, illusory art and tricks of the mind, you will solve puzzles and unlock secrets around the galleries.

MAKE AND PLAY

The best games to encourage teamwork, communication and creativity, delivered by a professional games-guru, culminating in a group-art activity to take back and display.
